Course Overview

Government has a profound impact on our lives and the functioning of society.

Government policies affect everything from our health and well-being, to the affordability of housing and transport, the quality of the environment and the viability of businesses and voluntary organisations.

Do you want to better understand how government works and how public policy can be improved? Do you want to better understand how democracy, politics, economics and law combine to affect public and social policy? Are you interested in working in government, business, or law? If so, then the BA: Government (Politics, Economics, and Law) at University of Galway is for you.

Course Name: BA Government (Politics, Economics & Law)

CAO Code: GY132

Course Level: 8

Duration: 3 years

Min Entry Points 2025: 412

Entry Requirements: Minimum Grade H5 in two subjects and passes in four other subjects at O6/ H7 level in the Leaving Certificate, including Irish, English, another language, and three other subjects recognised for entry purposes.

Career Opportunities

This degree combines the study of politics, economics and law. In doing so the degree creates career opportunities in local and national government, business, voluntary/non-governmental organisations, consultancy, public affairs, the EU and global development agencies. The multidisciplinary nature of the degree opens opportunities in public administration, policy analysis, industrial relations, public relations, journalism, social work, community work, political advocacy, management, economics and law.

Key Fact

The three core disciplines of this degree combine to give graduates a unique knowledge and background to develop careers in both the private and public sector.

Further Study

With a solid base in three key disciplines this degree creates and enhances prospects for further post-graduate study in business (such as an MBA), economics, law, human relations, political science, public policy analysis, sociology, and community development. Those who wish to pursue a career in law will be exempted from the first year of their LLB.
